A. DEPARTMENT NARRATIVE “PROGRAM PLAN”

1. Mission Statement:

Asian Pacific Student Programs strives to promote a diverse learning environment, providing the UC Riverside community with opportunities to learn from and about the Asian American and Pacific Islander student population.

2. Program Description: a. Please list each of your programs and/or your major activities/services for your department and give detailed information that describes your department.

Overview / Major Activates

APSP is organized in to five (5) functional units, each responding to a specific set of needs and coordinating a specific set of programs. These units are: 1) AAPI Speakers Series; 2) AAPI Womxn's Program; 3) APSP Round Table Discussions; 4) Cultural and Educational Programs; and 5) Peer Mentoring Program. In addition to their unique programs, these units also collaborate on a variety of large scale programs throughout the year. Included among the large scale programs are: the APSP Fall New Student Welcome; the Annual Lunar New Year Festival; AAPI Womxn’s Conference; Asian American and Pacific Islander Heritage Month; and the Asian Pacific Student Programs Graduation.

Programs/Services

1. Program/Service: AAPI Heritage Month

Description: A month-long celebration to honor AAPI heritage. Activities throughout the month have included celebrating the various API cultures, drummers, musical and dance productions, open-mic nights, banquets, guest speakers, and discussions.

Funding Source:

2. Program/Service: AAPI Womxn’s Program

Description: The Womxn’s Program provides positive examples of Asian American & Pacific Islander womxn, and equips young womxn with skills in communication, assertiveness, self-confidence and leadership. In dealing with racism, sexism, stereotyping, gender role expectations, and family obligations, mentors share their insight and skills with UCR students. They share resources and provide advice on academic interest and careers.

3. Program/Service: Asian and Pacific Islander Student Advisory Council

Description: The Asian and Pacific Islander Student Advisory Council is a forum for direct exchange between APSP and the University’s Asian American and Pacific Islander student organizations. Working with representatives from each formally affiliated student organization, the Council serves as a representative voice of the Asian American and Pacific Islander student community to the University. It coordinates joint projects between its member organizations, and promotes awareness of the experience and culture of the Asian American and Pacific Islander community.

4. Program/Service: Common Ground Collective

Description: The Common Ground Collective is a joint effort with African Student Programs, Asian Pacific Student Programs, Chicano Student Programs, Foster Youth Program, LGBT Resource Center, Middle Eastern Student Center, Native American Student Programs, Undocumented Student Programs, and the Women's Resource Center. Staff work with students to facilitate the Building Our Common Ground activity during Highlander Orientation and plan and facilitate the Common Ground Retreat with 50 UCR students in October. Staff work with Common Ground Scholars all year to present programs for the entire campus.

5. Program/Service: Cultural & Educational Programs

Description: APSP also co-sponsors a variety of cultural and educational programs that celebrate and raise awareness of current and historical Asian American and Pacific Islander experiences. Program coordinators work with the APSP Staff to design and present the Asian American and Pacific Islander community in creative and exciting ways. The Cultural and Educational Programs unit welcomes dedicated individuals and their ideas, and is open to all students interested in promoting a dialogue of diversity at UCR through innovative programming.

6. Program/Service: Leadership Development

Description: Motivated by the belief that leadership is not innate, but developed, and operating from the assumption that leaders are not born, but are trained, supported, and encouraged, APSP works to develop skills and experiences that will assist Asian American and Pacific Islander students participate effectively in the process of leadership in today's constantly changing world. Through workshops, training sessions, and retreats, the issues of leadership in the Asian American and Pacific Islander communities are examined and explored at both personal and community levels. Students are engaged in both theoretical and practical situations, and encouraged to apply the experiences gained through APSP leadership development activities to their own activities and involvement. The primary vehicles for APSP's leadership development activities are the Asian and Pacific Islander Student Advisory Council, Student Coordinator and Student Intern positions, and actively participating in planning committees.

7. Program/Service: Lunar New Year Festival

Description: Annual festival to celebrate the Lunar New Year featuring student and student organizations performances, games, and a night market.

8. Program/Service: One on One Advising

Description: Throughout the year students approach the APSP staff members for both formal and informal advising as it relates to classes, work, career aspirations, and personal life.

9. Program/Service: Peer Mentor Program Description: Peer Mentors cater to new UCR students (freshmen and transfer students) and to those experiencing academic difficulties. They provide a variety of services, including test taking preparation and stress management workshops, study skills and personal management workshops, and career information presentations. Through one-on-one and group sessions, Peer Mentors serve as guides to the University's varied resources. Like "big-brothers and sisters." Peer Mentors aim to make the adjustment into college life and culture a smooth one. Well trained, enthusiastic, and reliable, Peer Mentors assist students in making the most of their college experience.
10. Program/Service: Physical Space Description: The APSP office is often times described as a student's home away from home. The office serves as a resource students can use to hold meetings, take breaks in between classes and/or work, come to meet other students, or simply a place to relax and focus on what they need to do. We offer computer access and printing, a work area for students to study, and a lounge for students to hang out.
11. Program/Service: APSP Round Table Discussions Description: Student-led discussions on issues, topics, and current events relating to the Asian American and Pacific Islander community.
12. Program/Service: Student Club/Organization Advising Description: APSP formally and informally advises student clubs/organizations when it comes to programming, student leadership, officer transitions, etc.
13. Program/Service: Training and Consultation Description: APSP Staff members have been increasingly called upon to assist other campus units respond appropriately to the University's developing needs through training and consultation. Our topics have included diversity training, the Asian and Pacific Islander community and its issues, diversity in hiring, student conduct, and leadership training. We have provided services to the Residence Hall staff, Parking Services, Highlander Orientation Counselors, Ethnic Studies, and various peer support/educator programs. We have guest lectured, participated on panel presentations, attended meetings, and retreats and planning sessions. These activities, though not direct service to our student community, provide us with opportunities to affect delivery of services across campus and influence the educational experience in a much broader manner.

3. Strategic Vision: discuss your short-term (2024-2025) plans and major program goals that will use HESSR funds:

For the 2024-2025 academic year, our priorities will be to continue to connect with students and grow our current programs. Our hope is to be able to expand on what we have been doing the past 3 years and reach underrepresented AAPI student communities.

4. Challenges: Identify obstacles that need to be overcome and/or need to be met.

Our challenge will be reevaluating what APSP does and deciding what we would like to continue doing moving forward.

5. Please provide information on any recent evaluations your unit may have had. What recommendations were made, and what actions were taken in response to the recommendations

We ask all participants of our programs and events to complete an evaluation for the program or event. We compile these evaluations and gather the results and separate any critical feedback that may help us improve our programs and events in the future.

6. Additional information or clarification you would like to provide the committee on your unit's program plan:

C. Funding Proposal and Narrative

List below each use of funds you propose, following the guidelines put forth by the Referendum:

The Highlander Empowerment Student Services Referendum will allow the seven departments to better meet undergraduate students' needs by providing:

- Increased co-programming with student organizations and student-led initiatives, including funding and advising
- Staffing to assist students in finding support and resources
- Support for conference hosting and conference travel
- Support for Common Ground Collective projects & collaborative initiatives with the ASUCR Diversity Council
- Peer mentoring and peer education programs support
- More resources in each student program office and center, such as student computer support and educational materials
- Operational support for student services programs as described above, as the costs of campus services continue to increase

1. Overview: Any Information you would like to provide the committee on this year's request.

Fund Amount	Short Description
$48,000	Student Workers – 10 student workers * $16.00/hr * 10 hrs/wk * 10 weeks * 3 quarters ~ $48,000
$10,500	S&E for 3.5 FTE – S&E provides supplies, computing, professional development, etc., for professional staff. The divisional standard is $5,000 per FTE (full time employee). By dedicating HESSR funds to get every FTE up to $3,000, APSP can cover any current deficits in supplies, equipment, other staff resources, and professional development.

$15,000	Speaker Series – We will use these funds to bring influential and relevant AAPI speakers to campus. Our goal is to have at least one major speaker per quarter.
$10,000	Student Organization Co-Sponsorships – To encourage joint programming between APSP and AAPI student organizations.
$5,000	Special Projects/Collaborations – These funds will be used to support events that come up throughout the year from other departments around campus.
$4,300	AAPI Grad – These funds will be used in addition to any SSFAC funds we receive to put on the 2 nd annual AAPI Grad.
$4,000	VCSA Assessment Fee – A required fee assessed based on 3.75% of HESSR income from the previous fiscal year.
$1,000	Peer Mentor Program – Funds will be used to run our Peer Mentor Program.
$1,500	RSAC Stipend – This allocation will be used for a $500 per quarter stipend for our RSAC representative.
$500	Diversity Council Support – Funds for Diversity Counsel to hold retreats and launch projects important to their mission. Additional funds for programs may also be requested separately.
$200	Support for RSAC – Funds for RSAC to support food, P&R, and any other expenses related to their work.

Total = $100,000
